Luxor Temple in the reign of Hatshepsut

Plan of the Temple of Luxor
 Ramesses II only built the pylon and the first court. A change in the direction of the axis indicates their later construction. The colonnade, second court, columned hall and innermost temple rooms were built in the time of Amenhotep III as the "harem" of Amun. This was the place to which Amun came from Karnak once a year to celebrate his divine marriage.

Hatshepsut's Speos Artemidos façade inscription (excerpt):

Hear you, all people and folk as many as they may be, I have done these things through the counsel of my heart. I have not slept forgetfully, (but) I have restored that which had been ruined. I have raised up that which had gone to pieces formerly, since the Asiatics were in the midst of Avaris of the Northland, and vagabonds were in the midst of them, overthrowing that which had been made.
